John Steinbeck Elementary School's Vision and Mission Statements

Steinbeck Elementary fosters a mutually respectful and positive learning environment promoting self-accountability through active engagement, effective and data driven instruction with opportunities for students to create, collaborate, communicate and think critically to achieve goals aligned with 21st century academic standards of success. The mission for Steinbeck in alliance with Central Unified's guiding principles vision and mission based on the belief that every child can learn while embedding the core values of character, leadership, innovation and continuous improvement.

School Profile

Construction on Steinbeck was completed in Spring 1995, and the first students began in July 1995. The entire Steinbeck team is committed to providing a comprehensive academic program in a learning environment that maintains high academic and behavioral standards and promotes success for all students. Steinbeck Elementary School, with an attendance area of approximately 5 square miles, lies in a combination of an urban and agricultural setting. Steinbeck has 29 regular classroom teachers, one instructional support coach, two specialized academic instructors, a part-time speech therapist and school psychologist, two part-time instrumental music teachers, one part-time physical education teacher, three custodians, a principal's secretary, a clerk typist II, a part-time nurse and nurses aide, a guidance instructional advisor, and a principal.

Comprehensive Needs Assessment Components

Data Analysis

Please refer to the School and Student Performance Data section where an analysis is provided.

Surveys

This section provides a description of surveys (i.e., Student, Parent, Teacher) used during the school-year, and a summary of results from the survey(s).

An annual Parent Survey is administered to all Steinbeck parents and guardians. The area receiving the highest score, 95.5%, was feeling welcomed at school. Significant effort has and continues to be made regarding a helpful and positive environment in the office as well as Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports (PBIS) playing an essential part of shaping the culture and climate at Steinbeck for students, teachers, staff, and families. The area receiving the lowest score, 58.1%, was the opportunities to participate and learn visual and/or theater arts. Steinbeck currently has in place a part-time music teacher, part-time choir teacher, and dance classes offered after school. In addition, the after school program has done an annual school play. A next step already in action to increase participation with visual and performing arts is to partner the after school program with a teacher on staff as well as a community volunteer with theater experience. The goal of this collaboration is to open the opportunity for participation to all Steinbeck students (not just those enrolled in the after school program) as well as to enhance the overall quality of production.

Classroom Observations

This section provides a description of types and frequency of classroom observations conducted during the school-year and a summary of findings.

Every teacher meets individually at the beginning of the school year to discuss instructional and behavioral expectations, set goals, and discuss the evaluation process and schedule. Drop-In observations are completed weekly with adherence to the instructional evaluation process agreed upon by District administration and Central Unified Teachers Association (CUTA). Evaluations for probationary teachers are completed annually by the 90th day of instruction and the 130th day of instruction. Evaluations are completed every other year by the 145th day of instruction for tenured teachers. Classified instructional aides are evaluated biannually for probationary status and annually for permanent.

Analysis of Current Instructional Program

The following statements are derived from the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) of 1965 and Essential Program Components (EPCs). In conjunction with the needs assessments, these categories may be used to discuss and develop critical findings that characterize current instructional practice for numerically significant subgroups as well as individual students who are:

- Not meeting performance goals
- Meeting performance goals
- Exceeding performance goals

Discussion of each of these statements should result in succinct and focused findings based on verifiable facts. Avoid vague or general descriptions. Each successive school plan should examine the status of these findings and note progress made. Special consideration should be given to any practices, policies, or procedures found to be noncompliant through ongoing monitoring of categorical programs.

Standards, Assessment, and Accountability

1. Use of state and local assessments to modify instruction and improve student achievement (ESEA)

Multiple measures are used to assess the needs of students at Steinbeck Elementary School. Assessments utilized for program placement and instruction include Smarter Balanced and Assessment Consortium (SBAC), California State Test 5th Grade Science (CST), Accelerated Reader (AR), Fountas & Pinnell (F&P), Dynamic Indicators of Basic Early Literacy Skills (DIBELS), California English Language Development Test (CELDT), Kindergarten School Entrance Profile (KSEP), and local assessments in reading, writing, and mathematics.

2. Use of data to monitor student progress on curriculum-embedded assessments and modify instruction (EPC)

The school uses an ongoing assessment and monitoring system, Illuminate, that provides timely data from common assessments in order to support learning in both core and intensive intervention programs. Student achievement results from assessments (eg. KSEP, Entry-level placement or diagnostic such as Fountas and Pinnell; progress monitoring such as DIBELS, including frequent formative and curriculum-embedded; and summative assessments such as SBAC, STAR and CELDT) are used to inform teachers and principals on student placement, diagnosis, progress and effectiveness of instruction. Coordination between the data monitoring system, Illuminate, and our central student information system, Aeries, is established so that both systems have the appropriate information needed to support each student in classroom instruction, progress monitoring, and advancement.

Staffing and Professional Development

3. Status of meeting requirements for highly qualified staff (ESEA)

All Central USD employees meet current requirements for employment. The term 'highly qualified teacher' was no longer applicable to districts as on May 2017. The district is currently waiting on approved language and definitions from both state and federal Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA).

4. Sufficiency of credentialed teachers and teacher professional development (e.g., access to instructional materials training on SBE-adopted instructional materials) (EPC)

All teachers meet the criteria for employment during the transition from NCLB to ESSA. The district provides new teachers with instructional materials professional development by a knowledgeable and experienced Instructional Support Coach or experienced provider for SBE-adopted basic core ELA/ELD and mathematics programs. All teachers participate in ongoing professional development to support the continuing use of SBE-adopted ELA/ELD and mathematics programs and/or SBE-adopted reading or mathematics intensive intervention instructional programs in use at the school. In addition, professional development is provided by experienced trainers to support Gifted and Talented students, English Learners and students with disabilities in all grade levels and programs.

5. Alignment of staff development to content standards, assessed student performance, and professional needs (ESEA)

Professional development is planned to support classroom instruction and meet the needs of all students in accordance with the goals outlined in the Single Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA). At the end of the last school year, teachers were provided release time to build their capacity on common core standards implementation, 21st century skills (collaboration, communication, problem solving, critical thinking, creativity, and innovation), and planning for instruction that provides differentiation, in-depth understanding, including procedural and conceptual learning. Professional development for this school year, through focused training and support, will be provided based on student learning and staff need to fulfill Steinbeck's vision and mission. CUSD elementary collaboratives will be provided this year and will focus on literacy development within mathematics to develop a comprehensive plan for teaching mathematics in conjunction with reading, writing, listening, speaking, and thinking in a connected and engaged classroom.

6. Ongoing instructional assistance and support for teachers (e.g., use of content experts and instructional coaches) (EPC)

The district and school collaborate to provide instructional assistance and ongoing support to all teachers, including ELA/ELD and mathematics. Trained instructional support coaches who are knowledgeable about the adopted programs and effective instructional pedagogy work inside the classroom to support teachers and deepen their knowledge about the content and the delivery of instruction.

7. Teacher collaboration by grade level (kindergarten through grade eight [K–8]) and department (grades nine through twelve) (EPC)

The school facilitates and supports a one-hour structured collaboration meeting every other week and provides adequate time for the PLC team to meet at a minimum of 40 minutes on alternating weeks so that PLC collaboration occurs every week in order for all teachers in all grades to analyze, discuss, and utilize the results of common assessments, state assessments and district benchmarks to guide student placement, instructional planning and delivery, and progress monitoring, within all core and intervention programs. Teachers have been trained and continue to receive support in the use of the Data Teams Process to efficiently review data and create next-step actions that the PLC commits to implementing and monitoring. In this setting, PLCs are able to analyze, discuss, and utilize the results of student formative data to guide instructional planning and delivery with more input from teachers throughout the district.

Teaching and Learning

8. Alignment of curriculum, instruction, and materials to content and performance standards (ESEA)

Teachers have developed and are effectively utilizing curriculum plans and backward mapping to ensure instruction, curriculum, and materials are aligned to meet requirements for use of content and performance standards. Teachers are also utilizing district prepared K-12 CCSS Maps in both Literacy and Math.

9. Adherence to recommended instructional minutes for reading/language arts and mathematics (K–8) (EPC)

The school allocates adequate instructional time as recommended in the California subject matter frameworks for the standards-aligned, basic core programs for Reading/Language Arts (R/LA) and mathematics and intensive interventions as well as additional time for strategic support and English language development (ELD) for identified English learners (ELs). This provides all students, including ELs, students with disabilities (SWDs), students with learning difficulties (SWLDs), and advanced learners sufficient instruction and practice to meet their instructional needs. This time is given priority and is protected from interruptions.

R/LA: Core--Grade K 1 hour---Grades 1-3 2.5 hours---Grades 4-6 2 hours
R/LA small group/guided reading---Grades K-2 60 minutes---Grades 3-6 30 minutes
Mathematics: Core---Grade K 30 minutes---Grades 1-6 1 hour
Mathematics small group---Grades K-6 30 minutes
ELD Grade K 20 minutes---Grades 1-6 30 minutes

10. Lesson pacing schedule (K–8) and master schedule flexibility for sufficient numbers of intervention courses (EPC)

The district and school prepare, distribute, and monitor the use of an annual district-instructional/assessment pacing guide for each grade level (kindergarten through grade six) for the standards-aligned, basic core RLA/ELD, strategic support and intensive intervention programs and standards-aligned mathematics basic core, strategic, and Grades 4-6 intensive intervention programs in order for all teachers to follow a common sequence of instruction and assessment.

Use of the pacing guide ensures that all students receive a common sequence of grade-level instruction and common assessments. Data analysis of common assessments in teacher collaboration informs instructional planning and decision-making.

The basic core course pacing guide is the foundational pacing guide for the strategic support class. The teacher uses the basic core course pacing guide and intensifies the focus on key standards ensuring: 1) an alignment to the grade-level ELA/ELD and/or mathematics content being taught; 2) the use of the adopted basic core program ancillary materials; 3) time for pre/re-teaching; and 4) time to address specific skill needs of students.

11. Availability of standards-based instructional materials appropriate to all student groups (ESEA)

All students are provided district adopted core textbooks and consumable books to support instruction in each grade level.

12. Use of SBE-adopted and standards-aligned instructional materials, including intervention materials, and for high school students, access to standards-aligned core courses (EPC)

The school/district provides for all students, including English learners (ELs), students with disabilities (SWDs), students with learning difficulties and advanced learners in all grade levels, standards-aligned, basic core instructional programs, including ancillary materials for universal access, for Reading/Language Arts/English Language Development (RLA/ELD- CCSS) and for mathematics (CCSS). The school/district also provides intensive intervention programs for identified students in Grades 4-8 in RLA/ELD and Grades 4-7 in mathematics. These programs are implemented as designed in every classroom with materials for every student.

Opportunity and Equal Educational Access

13. Services provided by the regular program that enable underperforming students to meet standards (ESEA)

Steinbeck teachers are committed and are held accountable for providing differentiated instruction, implementing engagement strategies and maximizing opportunities for students to read, write, listen and speak. English Language Development strategies, aligned with Best Teaching Practices are a school wide expectation. Eligible migrant students at Steinbeck Elementary are evaluated annually with a migrant "Needs Assessment". If they are determined to be Priority for Service (PFS), then the migrant liaison and the classroom teacher complete a migrant student learning plan (SLP) with recommended interventions and alternative supports. During independent practice and based on formal and informal assessment results, individual and small groups of students receive reteaching, intervention, or extension work. In class intervention support is provided during the direct instruction model for strategic students. A push-in model is utilized for students with special needs. Utilization of a variety of engagement strategies and instructional models beyond direct instruction is a classroom expectation.

14. Research-based educational practices to raise student achievement

Research-based educational practices that are proven to be effective in raising student achievement are the foundation of the Central Way. Developed with input from every school team, the Central Way identifies key expectations for the practices of teachers as well as the practices of students that should be developed in order to positively impact achievement. At the core of each of these practices are the characteristics of a multi-tiered system of support for teaching and learning that include student engagement, setting of standards-based learning intentions and success criteria based on diagnosis of student need, promotion of student ownership in learning with timely and the consistent use of effective feedback. Essential to student engagement and learning are teachers who create a learning environment that stimulates curiosity, creativity and motivation. The Central Way promotes teacher clarity, a research-based educational practice with the highest effect size (Hattie), through high-impact professional learning teams that rely on formative data to define progress and prescribe next steps for teaching and learning.

Parental Involvement

15. Resources available from family, school, district, and community to assist under-achieving students (ESEA)

Steinbeck Elementary, the school district, and our community have many resources available to assist under-achieving students.

- Leveled literacy intervention program
- ST Math is available at both home and school as a web based application to support conceptual math development
- Accelerated Reader progress monitoring is available to inform and support student achievement in reading comprehension
- Lexia is a web based reading intervention program available to students before and after the school day in Shark island
- Steinbeck maintains a web site informing families of resources and further information to provide support for student achievement
- CUSD also maintains a web site informing families of resources and further information to provide support for student achievement
- Steinbeck hosts a parent education workshop series provided by Fresno County Office of Education

16. Involvement of parents, community representatives, classroom teachers, other school personnel, and students in secondary schools, in the planning, implementation, and evaluation of ConApp programs (5 California Code of Regulations 3932)

Steinbeck utilizes a variety of strategies to encourage community and parental involvement. ELAC, Annual Title I, and quarterly SSC meetings provide opportunity for parents to receive training, gain understanding of how to maintain high expectations, and develop a common vision. An active English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC), comprised of parents and staff, offer ideas and makes recommendations regarding our English Learner program. The role of the School Site Council is to assist with development of and recommend a single plan for student achievement. The School Site Council, following approval of a single plan for student achievement by the school district governing board, shall have on-going responsibility to review with the principal, teachers, and other personnel the implementation of the school improvement program and to assess periodically the effectiveness of such program. Modifications or any improvement to the plan or budget shall be developed, recommended, and approved or disapproved in the same manner. The primary task of the SSC is to ensure that the school is continually engaged in identifying and implementing curriculum and instructional practices that result in both strengthening the core academic program and ensuring that students have access to success in that program. A Home School Compact is reviewed annually. The signed compact underscores the importance of education to each student and provides the roles and responsibilities of teacher, student, and parents. Parent Education is offered during the year for parents to make a partnership between the school and the home. The parents become directly involved with the improvement of student achievement. The Steinbeck campus is in constant use after normal school hours for community meetings, recreational activities, boy scouts, girl scouts, tutoring services provided by outside vendors, community based programs, and athletic events.

Funding

17. Services provided by categorical funds that enable underperforming students to meet standards (ESEA)

There are many services provided by categorical funds to enable under-performing students to meet standards. EL - Teachers are trained to administer CELDT to their students to gather information on student need, EL students receive ELD instruction utilizing core materials, primary language and English AR books, listening centers, and software to build English proficiency. School wide - Intensive instructional opportunities are provided during several Saturdays throughout the school year, technology supports ST math and AR implementation, two literacy intervention teachers provide push-in and pull-out support for students performing two or more levels below grade level, literacy is supported through AR books, guided reading materials and support, and professional development for all staff. Differentiated instruction and effective use of technology for instruction is supported as staff receive ongoing training.

18. Fiscal support (EPC)

The school and district's general and categorical funds are coordinated, prioritized, and allocated to align with the full implementation of the EPCs in ELA/ELD and Mathematics and the Single Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA).

The SPSA is aligned with the goals and activities in the LEAP/LCAP Plan.

The district, working in conjunction with the school, provides ongoing support, fiscal and in-kind resources to implement fully and sustain the strategic priorities identified by the school in the APS, and applied in the SPSA.

District general and categorical budgets and LEAP/LCAP Plan demonstrate on-going commitment to continue support for EPC-related school reform.

Description of Barriers and Related School Goals

Steinbeck Elementary School is faced with several challenges to improving student achievement. Currently, there are 773 students enrolled at Steinbeck with 85% of them being Socio-Economically Disadvantaged. Thus Steinbeck is faced with the challenge of meeting the needs of our growing at-risk population. Steinbeck has a population of 13% EL students and 7% students with disabilities (SWD). Many students also face a language development barrier because they are not supported or engaged at home with academic language. Additionally, ongoing site professional development along with district professional development continue to strengthen staff ability to effectively utilize technology for instruction.

2. Major learning gaps exist in the expected CCSS ELA Listening domain; Demonstrating effective communication skills in grades 3-6. This conclusion is based on the Standard Not Met category (the lowest category) being the most significant percentage for grades 3-6 (grade 3, 27%; grade 4, 35%; grade 5, 32%; grade 6, 23%).
3. Research/Inquiry are the ELA claims indicating the most improvement for students in grades 3-6. This conclusion is based on the percentage scoring above standard in grades 3-6 as 19% . over previous years proficiency of 13%.

Conclusions based on this data:

1. A significant opportunity for growth exists in student learning for Mathematics. This conclusion is based on 79% of Steinbeck students in grades 3-6 not meeting achievement standards for Mathematics.
2. The learning gap for Mathematics of grade level expectations compared to student performance widens with each progressing grade level for grades 3-6. This conclusion is based on Standards Exceeded and Standards Met combined in grade 3 of 31%, grade 4 of 20%, grade 5 of 19%, and grade 6 of 14%.
3. Concepts and Procedures is the most significant claim of need for grades 3-6. This conclusion is based on 58% of students in grades 3-6 scoring Below Standard, the lowest of the three claims.

Planned Improvements in Student Performance

Goal: Parent Engagement

The School Site Council has analyzed the academic performance of all student groups and has considered the effectiveness of key elements of the instructional program for students failing to meet student performance targets. As a result, it has adopted the following school goals, related actions, and expenditures to raise the academic performance of students not yet meeting state standards:

SUBJECT: Parent Engagement
LEA GOAL:
LEAP Performance Goal 5: All students will graduate from high school. LCAP Goal 3: Engage families in system-wide programs assuring students/families access to support for academic, social/emotional and physical well-being.
SCHOOL GOAL
The goal for this school year is to have at least 10 parent participants at each school event (parent teacher conferences, Back to School Night, Literacy Meetings, SSC/ELAC committees, site Title 1 meeting). Sign in sheets will be reviewed after each event and participation logged. Base line data will be attained at the end of the school year for which to build upon for future years.
Data Used to Form this Goal:
No specific data was used to determine the goal. Emphasis on parent participation was based on school and district vision statement and guiding principals to emphasize efforts to increase parent participation at all sites.
Findings from the Analysis of this Data:
Student learning would benefit from an increase in parent knowledge and skills about literacy and their child's education in order to provide adequate support at home.
Means of evaluating progress & group data needed to measure gains:
A spreadsheet will be used to track parent involvement using sign in sheets. Parents will be invited to attend meetings via flyers, blackboard connect, monthly calendars and on the school marquee located in front of the school.

John Steinbeck Elementary Title 1 Parent Involvement Policy

2017-2018 School Year

Recognizing the valuable role parents play in the educational development of their children, Steinbeck's goal is to develop a strong partnership with its parents. Our policy was developed with input from our English Language Advisory Committee (ELAC) and School Site Council (SSC). - Discussion Topics:
 - Mrs Kaercher opened comments to parents: no comments or concerns
 - Ms Alanis shared Fall Carnival information. Last Friday of October (10-27-17), Shark Island Haunted House - $1 entrance fee, food and entertainment
 - Mr Caskey shared positive outcomes from Mr Parnell's lunch activities. Helps keep students motivated and has positive effect on student behaviors.
 - Ms Aldana shared positive support of yard supervision. More adults outside for students and transitions in and out to lunch.
 - Parent Question: Mr. Arvance asked how are parents able to acquire knowledge of school PBIS strategies (as listed above) - Mrs Kaercher replied with PTC meetings held each month, school to home communication dialers, parent individual communications
 - Mr Arvance shared an idea of utilizing the school's website page as a means of communication for concerns or just check ins as to strategies already set in place. Parents could sign into the school's webpage and be directed to an email system that sends out an email to Mrs Kaercher. Through a directory of various topics, parent emails can be delegated out to the most appropriate person or persons. ie. Questions about Shark Island could be sent out to Mrs. Martinez who would be able to respond better than asking the front office. System could be set up to allow a 2-3 week window for response as to not bombard any one individual with a surplus amount of questions.

- o Mr Parnell shared a concern about the set-up for the online process and making sure it's accessible for parents and Steinbeck Staff.
- Mrs Kaercher asked for a review or approval of SPSA items.
 - o Mr. Parnell asked about Multiplication flashcards and if they were needed for 6th graders and not "too easy". Mr Caskey shared the benefits of maintaining math foundational skills and fluency in multiplication facts. The flashcards are useful in Multiplication Mania for 3-6th graders to promote sportsmanship and healthy competition among classes and grade levels. Benefits shared by Mrs Kaercher were better math scores on Star tests, and teacher recommendations to begin the competition sooner in the school year.
 - o Mr. Arvance asked about Teaching Fellows and where the funding goes. Mrs Kaercher shared the funds go to keep the program here at Steinbeck and it helps to fund the teachers they employ for our students.
 - o Motion to approve SPSA items made at 3:57 by Ms. Cheever, all approved

6. Unfinished Business:
