

Dress code input from parents, students, and staff—spring 2018

- No solid red or blue clothing (all attire) (1 response)
- No blankets allowed on campus (1 response)
- Allow students to have unnatural colored hair. E.g. red or pink (3 responses)
- Allow pajama pants (1 response)
- Allow hoodies in class (1 response)
- No hoodies allowed (1 response)
- Allow sports logos (professional and college) (2 responses)
- Allow designs buzzed into the hair (1 response)
- No tattoos depicting weapons or verbiage of aggression (1 response)
- Teachers should conform to the same dress code standards as the students (1 response)
- No heels taller than 2 inches (1 response)
- Allow students to wear flip-flops or sliders (1 response)
- Have uniforms in elementary schools (3 responses)
- No earrings for elementary students (1 response)
- Tank tops must have 3 inch shoulder straps (1 response)
- School T-shirt dress code on Monday through Thursday. Free dress every Friday (1 response)