Dear Jason,

On behalf of Lexia Learning, I invite you to join us at the upcoming Lexia Leadership Summit entitled, Accelerating District-Wide Literacy Gains: Leveraging Research-Proven Best Practices. The event will take place November 8-9, at the Westin Georgetown in Washington, D.C.

Featured speakers:

- Elsa Cardenas-Hagan, Ed.D., CCC-SLP, Director of Valley Speech Language and Learning Center and Associate Research Professor at University of Houston-TIMES, will speak on "Structured Literacy: A Differentiated Approach."
- Elizabeth C. Brooke, Ph.D., CCC-SLP, Chief Education Officer at Lexia Learning and Rosetta Stone and former Director of Interventions at the Florida Center for Reading Research, will speak on "Maximizing the Impact of Reading Assessment and Instruction: The Important Role of Language."

Additionally, join us to gain new perspectives and share insights on:

- Building efficient and effective district-wide plans for literacy assessment and instruction
- Tailoring reading instruction to the specific needs of elementary and adolescent students
- Addressing critical academic language gaps of ELs and non-proficient readers
- Leveraging research-proven resources available from Lexia through networking and sharing best practices among educational leaders

We are happy to offer attendees complimentary airfare, local transportation, meals and lodging to participate in this exclusive Leadership Summit. We understand that schools and districts have different policies and requirements with respect to coverage of expenses, so we ask you to confirm that participation and acceptance is permitted by your school or district when you register. Note that acceptance of this invitation does not imply any commitment or intent to purchase.

For more information or to register for this exclusive event please visit our event website, or contact me directly!

Most sincerely,
Shawn Kiehn
