BY LAWS
OF
CENTRAL HIGH PEP & CHEER
BOOSTER CLUB

ARTICLE 1-GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1 NAME

The name of the organization shall be known as Central High Pep & Cheer Booster Club herein known as CHPCBC

1.2 STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The object of CHPCBC shall be to;

- A. Raise monies to help supplement the district budget provided to the Central high School Pep & Cheer Program.
- B. Provide program support as needed for CHPCBC events.
- C. This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify under section 501(c)(3) of the internal Revenue code, or any corresponding section of any future federal tax code. No proceeds from the corporation will enrich any individual except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services to the corporation.

1.3 ORGANIZATION RESPONSIBILITIES

CHPCBC responsibilities shall be to work together with Central High School Cheer staff and students to provide fundraising opportunities and financial support to the Central High Pep & Cheer program including spring and summer feeder program for high school and younger athletes.

1.4 MEMBERS

- A. Members of this organization include parents, coaches and community volunteers.
- B. New members can join at any time throughout the existence of the club. All members must be committed to attending monthly, bi-weekly, or weekly meetings and participating in all fundraising and program enhancing activities. Failure to commit to these areas could result in removal from club by majority vote.

C. MEMBER EXPLOITATION

In no way will secondary agendas occur within the realm of this club. Members shall not use the Booster Club as a platform to promote their student-athlete or negatively influence the direction of the Pep & Cheer program. Coaches, parents and other members of the club should collectively work together for the betterment of the Pep & Cheer program.

D. MEMBER AT LARGE

Member at Large will have no Board Responsibilities, unless otherwise assigned. However, if Members at Large would like voting rights there will be a $20 enrollment fee, which includes a booster club t-shirt. Members at Large must attend three consecutive meetings in order to execute their voting rights.

1.5 VOTING

Voting will take place for delegation of funds, scheduling a team event/fundraiser, adding community members to the group, and/or removing a member. The voting procedure is as follows:

1. Three officers will constitute a quorum, which must be present for a vote to count.
2. Decisions will be made by a majority vote of officers present.

A. VOTING PERCENTAGES

Below describes the voting percentages from each officer
President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, Members at Large = 20% each of the vote.

1.6 EXECUTIVE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Executive Board of Directors of the CHPCBC herein known as the Board shall consist of a minimum of 3 members: President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. Also, there will be no limit of Members at Large.

A. POWER AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD

The Powers and Duties of the Board are:

1. To insure proper operation of the CHPCBC.
2. To appoint committees for any designated purpose as needed.
3. To formulate and follow a budget or expected income and expenses.
4. To operate and manage CHPCBC fundraisers including snack bar.

B. BOARD MEMBERSHIP AND TENURE

All Board members shall serve a maximum of 3 year term. . Re-election will occur every 3 years unless a board member resigns. After three absences by a board member, as determined by a vote of the Board, a position is declared vacant and up for immediate re-election except for the Presidency with will be filled by the Vice President.

C. ELECTION PROCESS

1. The secretary will notify all Members of the Nominating Meeting at least 72 hours prior to the meeting. Nomination for appropriate election positions will be make at this meeting or submitted in writing.

C. ELECTION PROCESS (continued)

2. The Secretary will distribute numbered ballots to members at the next meeting and collect all ballots after selections have been made.
3. The Secretary will tabulate all ballots and announce the results at the end of the meeting.
4. There will be one vote per Board Member and Member at Large.

D. PRESIDENT

The major duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Preside at all meetings of the organization.
2. Regularly meet with the Director of Sport regarding booster activities.
3. Resolve problems in the membership.
4. Regularly meet with the treasurer of the organization to review the organization's financial position.
5. Setup business non-profit account.
6. Select an officer as the designee to receive bank statements through the mail at their home address or booster club P.O. Box. This individual must not be a signer on the account. Upon receipt, the designee should review the activity on the bank statement and canceled checks for reasonableness. This provides an independent review by an individual not associated with disbursement activity.
7. Schedule annual audit of records or request an audit if the need should arise during the year.
8. Perform any other specific duties as outlined in the bylaws of the organization.

E. VICE PRESIDENT

The Vice President acts as the president's representative in his/her absence. They must remain familiar with the organization. The major duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Preside at meetings in the absence or inability of the president to serve.
2. Perform administrative functions delegated by the president.
3. Perform other specific duties as outlined in the bylaws of the organization.

F. SECRETARY

The Secretary is responsible for keeping accurate records of the proceedings of the association and reporting to the membership. The secretary must ensure the accuracy of the minutes of the meetings, and have a thorough knowledge of parliamentary law and the organizations bylaws. The major duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Report on any recommendations made by the executive board of the Booster organization if such a governing board is defined by the bylaws.
2. Maintain the records of the minutes, approved bylaws and any standing committee rules, current membership and committee listing.
3. Record all business transacted at each meeting of the association as well as meetings of any executive board meetings in a prescribed format.
4. Maintain records of attendance of each board member and members at large.
5. Conduct and report on all correspondence on behalf of the organization.
6. Other specific duties as outlined in the bylaws of the organization.

G. TREASURER

Authorized custodian of the funds for the booster club. The treasurer receives and disburses all monies indicated in the budget and prescribed in the bylaws or as authorized by action of the voting members.

1. Issue a receipt for all monies received and deposit said amounts on a weekly basis (daily if receipts on hand exceed $250.00)
2. Setup business non-profit account.
3. Present a current financial report including bank statements, bank reconciliations, and financial statements to the executive committee within 30 days of the previous month end. Copies should be available for review by the general membership if requested;
4. Maintain an accurate and detailed account of all monies received and disbursed;
5. Submit records to audit committee appointed but the organization upon request or at the end of the year. Other specific duties outlined in the bylaws of the organization.
6. Complete and submit all tax documents for Federal and State compliance.

E. SPECIAL COMMITTEES

Special committees are created for specific purpose and voted upon by the membership. The committee is automatically dissolved as soon as the purpose is accomplished and the committee report is made (sample: committee such as program banquet or fundraising events). Special committees should complete their assignments within the current school year. If the objectives are not met at the end of the school year, officers will be required to reappoint members of the committee for the following year until the purpose of the committee has been achieved. Individuals who have a conflict of interest must not be allowed to serve as members of the committee. For example, senior parents would not be included on a scholarship committee since their child is a potential recipient of the monies.

F. NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The nominating committee is formed from the organizations membership. The purpose of the committee is to recommend various members of the organization for office during the early spring of each year. The nominating committee should be charged with soliciting recommendations for officer positions within the organization. The committee should then contact the potential candidate directly to ascertain their willingness and desire to serve. The nominating committee should report back to the membership on their results in the spring so that elections may be held.

G. AUDIT COMMITTEE

At the end of the fiscal year, an audit of the booster club's financial records will take place. The audit will be performed by individuals who are independent from day-to-day financial activities. This audit should be performed by a group of 2 or 3 individuals. The primary objectives of the audit are to:

1. Verify the accuracy and timely filing of the Treasurers financial reports.
2. Ensure that the clubs cash balances are accurate.
3. Determine that established procedures for handling booster funds have been followed.
4. Ensure that expenditures occurred in a manner consistent with the organizations bylaws.
5. Ensure that all revenues have been appropriately received and recorded.

1.7 MEETINGS

- A. REGULAR MEETING CHPCBC will hold regular bi-weekly meetings every month. All meetings will be held in a public place open to the entire general membership. Closed meetings may be held to discuss personnel and legal matters.
- B. SPECIAL MEETINGS: May be called by the President. A two day notice is required. The purpose must be known to each Board member prior to the meeting. Conference calls are also permitted if all members cannot meet.
